Artisan MARKET

The Rosenberg Main Street Program is proud to present the Rosenberg Artisan Market on Saturday, October 12, 2019. Shop Historic Downtown Rosenberg from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. for handcrafted goods, local art and unique gifts while enjoying live music and food trucks.

Historic Downtown Rosenberg is the first and only state-designated Cultural Arts District in Fort Bend County, and home to a burgeoning cultural arts scene. Many view the arts as a way to unify communities, as they have done in Rosenberg. Creatives will gather to display their hard work during the Artisan Market for attendees to shop and enjoy.

Several shops in Downtown Rosenberg will offer specials throughout their stores. These shops offer a wide variety of goods including antiques, boutiques, jewelry, home and garden and more. Enjoy one of the excellent downtown restaurants for lunch or stop by one of the food trucks to get your fill.

3rd Street will become a unique marketplace filled with artisan goods. Merchandise will include handcrafted jewelry, custom furniture and one-of-a-kind artwork, all unique gifts to help prepare for the holiday season. # Well Soul Fitness

Find balance, inner peace and strength in yourself at Well Soul Fitness located in Historic Downtown Rosenberg. What was once an auto shop is now a charming and unique fitness studio with a variety of classes to offer. Looking for a coach to help reach your fitness goal? Sign up for Boot Camp, Circuit Training, Yoga, Zumba, Personal Training or Pilates – the first class is FREE!

“Well Soul Fitness began as a way to help individuals find a positive fitness community to provide support along their own wellness journeys,” said Randee Immel, founder of Well Soul Fitness. “Come and try it. We modify every class for beginners and we will be there with you every step of the way. When you walk through the door you become part of our family!”

Immel is a Rosenberg native who hopes to inspire others to follow their own passions and make healthy lifestyle choices along the way. Circuit classes are kid-friendly as well. She strives to provide affordable membership options. Well Soul Fitness also hosts fun events throughout the year, including glow-in-the-dark Zumba, Yoga Wine-downs and Kid’s yoga.

“The kids love yoga! It is amazing to watch them discover their inner warrior. We focus on breathing to calm the mind and body,” said Immel.

Join the Well Soul Fitness community at 503A Houston Street in Historic Downtown Rosenberg. ## What's the Deal? More than just a resale shop

When entering the door of What's the Deal?, some of the friendliest faces in Rosenberg are proud to welcome you in the shop. The resale shop has plenty to browse, including beautiful furniture, décor and treasures to cherish. However, this quaint little piece of history has a lot more to offer than just estate sale items.

What's the Deal? provides an opportunity for individuals with special needs to develop a vast variety of life skills through the Thomas & Lewin Associates We Thrive Organization. The shop is a place where individuals can grow and develop skills for future employment opportunities. These skills are carried into the community, giving special needs individual's firsthand experience in the working world.

Thomas & Lewin Associates, Inc. provides home and community based program services throughout most of the state of Texas. Since 2002, CEO Athena Thomas and Vice President Anne Lewin have served the city of Rosenberg, providing quality care and services to those with disabilities.

“This is very much a family atmosphere,” said Anne Lewin, Vice President of Thomas & Lewin Associates. “We have created a family atmosphere here. We have a very loyal staff that view the clients as part of their family. For some of the clients, this is the only family they have.”

When visiting Historic Downtown Rosenberg, visit What's the Deal? located at 2007 Avenue G to find your newest vintage treasure. By doing so, you will make a difference in the lives of individuals who will always welcome you with a smile.
